Piedmont Junior Market Hog Show And Sale

The 1975 Piedmont Junior Market Hog Show and Sale was held on Wed., Aug. 13 at the Farmville Livestock Market. This year's show, sponsored by King's Supermarkets and the Virginia Tech Extension Service, produced 99 entries from 4-H and FFA members in eight counties. Ten Appomattox 4-H and FFA members showed a total of 33 hogs in the show.

The Grand Champion single was exhibited by Mike Clark of Amelia County and was purchased for $1.00 per pound by the Farmville Livestock Market. The Reserve Champion Single, exhibited by Brenda Robinson of Appomattox County was purchased for .86 per pound by George Myers and Sons. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Pens of 3 Hogs were exhibited by David Bryan of Buckingham County and Tommy Wheeler of Appomattox County respectively and were purchased for .69/lb. Dinner Bell Meat Products of Lynchburg and .67/lb. South Central Feeder Pig Association. Other purchases of hogs were as follows: 1 & 2's - 59.5c/lb, 3's - 58.5c/lb., Heavies - 56.5c/lb., Lights - 55c/lb., all sold to George Myers and Sons, Richmond.

Exhibitors from Appomattox County included David Robinson, Brenda Robinson, Virginia Robinson, Tommy Wheeler, Elaine Wilson, Ed Dike, Robert Dyess, Warren Lamberth, Jonathan Pickett and Todd Pickett. These members received the following awards and prizes in addition to the top award winners above: Appomattox 4-Hers received cash prizes for the following animals: Jonathan Pickett (Pen (3) and 3 singles; Todd Pickett (Pen of Five and 3 singles); Elaine Wilson 2 singles also 2nd place in Junior Showmanship; Tommy Wheeler (1 single); Robert Dyess 3 singles; Ed Dike 3 singles also high individual in judging contest; Warren Lamberth 2 singles; David Robinson 3 singles; and Virginia Robinson 1 single.

This year's show produced 72 number 1 & 2's Grade hogs, and 14 number 3 grade animals. All hogs sold averaged 59.5c/lb.

Official graders from the Virginia Department of Agriculture were J. E. Poore and C. E. Black. Official show judge was Dr. John Gerken of the Animal Science Department of Virginia Tech.

In the special fitting and Showmanship Contest, Kelvin Nash of Cumberland County received 1st place in the Junior Division and Larry Morris of Buckingham County received 1st place in the Senior Division.

A special Judging event was also held with awards provided by the Piedmont Pork Producers Association. High Individual was 1st Ed Dike, Appomattox County and the High Team was Buckingham County 4-H.

Winners were also announced in a special poster contest sponsored by the Virginia Porketes, involving 4-H members in all counties. Posters were made on the theme of "Think Pork" with a category for Nutrition and for Production. Cindy O'Brien of Appomattox placed second in the Junior Age group.

The market Hog Show and Sale terminates a lot of tedious and hard work by the 4-H and FFA members. From the selection of a feeder pig to the showing of a market hog, the members deserve a great deal of credit.

4-H and FFA members would like to thank all the supporters of this years show and sale and especially thank Joe Howell and Ben Howell, Jr. for their assistance at the Farmville Livestock Market.

Appomattox 4-H members were also Yo-Ag Instructor Dennis Torrence and Extension Agents Brick Goldman and Frank Sweet. Appomattox 4-Hers received the Grand Champion Single based on total weight and quality of hogs brought to the county.
